81A.

14. After Section 81, the following section shall be inserted:—

Farming of tolls.

“81A. (1) It shall be lawful for the Municipal Council to lease the levy of any toll that may be imposed under this Regulation by public auction or private contract; provided that the lessee shall give security for the due fulfilment of the conditions of the lease.

(2) Where any toll has been leased under this section, any person employed by the lessee to collect such tolls shall, subject to the conditions of the lease, have the powers referred to in sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 79; provided that no article distrained may be sold except under the orders of the President.

15. (1) After sub-section (2) of Section 83 of the Regulation, the following shall be inserted as sub-section (2a):—

Amendment of Section 83

“(a) Where the property is in the area under the control of the Municipal Council, the warrant shall be addressed to an officer of the Municipal Council. Where the property is in another Municipality, or in a place which is not a Municipality, the warrant shall be addressed to the President of the Municipal Council concerned or to the Amildar of the Taluk as the case may be; provided that such President or Amildar may endorse such warrant to a subordinate officer.”

To whom the warrant should be addressed.

(2) In sub-section (3) of the same section for the words “any municipal officer,” the word any “officer” shall be substituted.

16. After Section 84, the following section shall be inserted:—

Addition of Section 84 A.

“84A. Where the warrant is addressed outside the Municipality, the authority issuing the warrant may by endorsement direct the officer to whom the warrant is addressed to sell the property distrained and in such case it shall be lawful for such officer to sell the property and to do all things incidental to the sale and the foregoing provisions shall be modified accordingly. Such officer shall, after deducting all costs of recovery incurred by him, remit the amount recovered under the warrant to the authority by whom it was issued.”

Distrain and sale outside the Municipality.

17. After Section 91, the following new Section 91A shall be inserted:—

Addition of a new Section 91A.

“91A. (1) It shall be the duty of every Municipal Council to prescribe a line on each side of every public street within the Municipality and the Municipal Council may from time to time prescribe a fresh line in substitution for any line so prescribed, or for any part thereof:

The regular line of a public street.

Provided that—

(a) at least one month previous to prescribing such line or such fresh line, as the case may be, the Municipal Council shall give public notice of the proposal and they shall put up special notice thereof in the street or part of the street for which such line or such fresh line is proposed to be prescribed, and

(b) the Municipal Council shall consider any written objection or suggestion in regard to such proposal delivered at the office of the Municipal Council within such time as they may specify in such public or special notice.

(2) The line for the time being so prescribed shall be called ‘the regular line of the public street.’

(3) Except under the provisions of Section 113, no person shall construct, or without the permission of the Municipal Council under Section 96 reconstruct any portion of any building within the regular line of the public street.

(4) Whoever contravenes the provisions of sub-section (3) shall be punished with fine which may extend to one thousand rupees; and the Municipal Council may—

(a) direct that the building be stopped, and (b) by a written notice require such building or portion thereof to be altered or demolished as they may deem necessary.”

18. After Section 93, the following new Section 93A shall be inserted:

Addition of a new Section 93A.

“93A. No piece of land shall be used as a site for the construction of a building and no building shall be constructed or reconstructed otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Regulation and of any bye-laws made under this Regulation relating to the use of building sites or the erection or use of buildings;

Building site and construction or reconstruction of buildings.

Provided that the Government may in respect of all Municipalities or with the consent of the Municipal Council, in respect of any particular Municipality or portion thereof, exempt

all buildings or any class of buildings from all or any of the provisions of this Regulation or the bye-laws made thereunder

19. After Section 93A, the following new Section 93B shall be inserted:—

"93B. (1) The Municipal Council may give public notice of its intention to declare—

(a) that in any streets or portions of streets specified in the notice.

(i) continuous building will be allowed,
(ii) the elevation and construction of the frontage of all buildings thereafter constructed or reconstructed shall, in respect of their architectural features, be such as the Municipal Council may consider suitable to the locality, or

(b) that in any locality specified in the notice, the construction of only detached buildings will be allowed or,

(c) that in any street, portions of streets or localities specified in the notice, the construction of shops, warehouses, factories, huts, or buildings of a specified architectural character or building destined for particular uses will not be allowed without the special permission of the Municipal Council.

(2) No objections to any such declaration shall be received after a period of three months from the publication of such notice.

(3) The Municipal Council shall consider all objections received within the said period and may then confirm the declaration, and before doing so, may modify it, but not so as to extend its effect.

(4) The President shall publish any declaration so confirmed and it shall take effect from the date of publication.

(5) No person shall, after the date of publication of such declaration, construct, or reconstruct any building in contravention of any such declaration."

20. After Section 93 B, the following new Section 93 C shall be inserted:—

Addition of new Section 93 C. Buildings at corner of streets.

"93C (1) The Council may require any building intended to be erected at the corner of two streets to be rounded off or splayed off to such height and to such extent, otherwise as it may determine; and may acquire such portion of the site at the corner as it may consider necessary for public convenience or amenity.

(2) For any land so acquired, the Municipal Council shall pay compensation.

(3) In determining such compensation, allowance shall be made for any benefit accruing to the same premises from the improvement of the streets."

Addition of a new Section 95 A.

Rat-proof building for grain shop or grain store.

21. After Section 95, the following new section shall be added:—

"95A. The Municipal Council may require that any building, used or intended to be used as a grain shop or grain store, shall be erected so as to render such building rat-proof and may for this purpose prescribe the plan and the design to be adopted and the materials to be used for such building; Provided that the provisions of this section shall be Enforceable only within such areas as may be notified by the Municipal Council from time to time with the previous approval of Government."

Addition of a new Section 137.

22. After Section 137, the following new section shall be inserted:—

"137A. Within such limits as the Municipal Council may direct, no person shall keep more than ten pigs or more than twenty goats without a license from the Municipal Council. The Municipal Council may charge an annual fee not exceeding Rs. 2 for such license and may impose such conditions in respect of such license as they may think necessary. Whoever keeps any pigs or goats contrary to the provisions of this section shall be punishable with fine which may extend to Rs. 25."

23. (1) For clause (k) of Section 151, the following shall be substituted:—

(k) For boiling, pressing, cleansing, repairing or manufacturing by any process whatever, oil (edible or non-edible.)

24. After Section 151, the following new section shall be inserted:—

Addition of a new Section 151 A.
Factories in crowded localities.

"151A. (1) No person shall newly establish in any premises, any factory, workshop or work-place in which it is intended that steam, water, electrical or other mechanical power shall be employed without the previous written permission of the Municipal Council.

(2) The Municipal Council may refuse to give such permission if they be of opinion that the establishment of such factory, workshop or work-place in the proposed position is objectionable by reason of the density of the population in the neighbourhood thereof, or will be a nuisance to the inhabitants of the neighbourhood or in any other manner contravenes the terms of any bye-laws framed in this behalf.

(3) Whoever establishes in any premises, any factory, workshop or work-place as aforesaid without or after the refusal of such permission, or in contravention of the terms of any bye-laws framed in this behalf, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees."

25. After Section 151 A, the following new section shall be inserted:—

Addition of a new Section 151 B.

"151 B. (1) No person shall use or employ in any factory, or any other place, any whistle or trumpet operated by steam, mechanical means or electricity for the purpose of summoning or dismissing workmen or persons employed except under and in accordance with the conditions of a license from the Municipal Council.

Use of siren or whistle for summoning or dismissing workmen.

(2) The Municipal Council may grant such license subject to such conditions as they may deem fit and may at any time withdraw such license on giving one month's notice to the licensee:

Provided that where the licensee has contravened any of the conditions of the license, the license may be withdrawn without any such notice.

(3) Whoever uses or employs any such whistle or trumpet as aforesaid without, or in contravention of, any of the conditions of, or after the withdrawal of such license, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees."

26. After Section 161 of the Regulation, the following new section shall be added as Section 161A:

Addition of new Section 161 A.

"161A. A Municipal Council may—

(a) compromise with any person against whom a reasonable suspicion exists that he has committed an offence punishable under this Regulation or any bye-law thereunder and on such compromise no proceedings shall be taken against such person in respect of such offence;

Power to compound offences.

(b) withdraw from prosecutions instituted under this Regulation or under any bye-law made thereunder;

(c) compound any offence against this Regulation or against any bye-law made thereunder which, under any enactment for the time being in force, may lawfully be compounded:

Provided that Government may make rules to regulate the proceedings of persons empowered to compromise offences under this section."

Addition of new Section
164 A.

27. After section 64 of the Regulation, the following new section shall be added:—

"164A. No distraint shall be made, no suit shall be instituted and no prosecution shall be commenced in respect of any sum due to the Municipal Council under this Regulation after the expiration of a period of three years from the date on which such distraint might have been made, a suit might have been instituted or prosecution might first have been commenced, as the case may be, in respect of such sum."

Addition of a new Section
173 A.

28. After Section 173 of the Regulation, the following new Section shall be inserted:—
